
Sliding Fee Discount Program

To help address financial barriers to accessing care, Elica Health Centers offers all families and individuals access to a Sliding Fee Discount Program. Eligibility is based on family/household size and income at or below 200 percent of the Federal Poverty Level.

The program will cover all family members for all Elica services for up to 12 months with a new application required annually or anytime there is a change in household size and/or income.

This program provides access to discounted medical, behavioral, or dental health services at Elica Health Centers. Referral services for diagnostic and specialty care with many of Elica's partner providers are also included in the Sliding Fee Discount Program.

To see if you qualify for this Sliding Fee Discount Program, please call (855) 354-2242.

Family Size

Family is defined as a group of two or more people related by birth, marriage, or adoption, who reside together. This includes related sub-family members. For example, a husband and wife, their children, the husband's parents, and the wife's nephew are considered a family.

To determine which individuals can be included in the Sliding Fee Discount program application, see below:

Household/family members include:

- The applicant
- Applicant's spouse and children
- Any others living with applicant, related or not, who qualify as a dependent on tax returns

People NOT included:

- Anyone who does not live with the applicant
- Those temporarily living with the applicant
- Roommates/housemates living with the applicant in shared housing

Frequently Asked Questions for Sliding Fee Discount Program

Q: Who in the household is eligible for the Sliding Fee Discount once the household size is determined?

A: Any member of the household listed on the approved application would be eligible to receive the Sliding Fee Discounts if eligibility requirements are met.

Q: How often do I need to apply for the Sliding Fee Discount Program?

A: You must re-apply every year, or immediately if there is a change in your current household size or income.

Q: If I do not want to share financial information, am I still eligible for the Sliding Fee Discount Program?

A: No. Eligibility is largely determined by your financial situation. If you choose not to provide this information, your status will be considered "Full Fee," and you will be responsible for all applicable charges for your visit to Elica.

Q: If my family and I are covered by any other health insurance or Medicare plan with a share of cost such as deductibles, co-insurance, or co-pays, am I eligible for the Sliding Fee Discount Program?

A: Yes. If you are approved for the Sliding Fee Discount Program, you will be asked to pay the lesser of your insurances' co-pay or the assigned discounted fees.

Q: If I am self-employed or have income from a business, how is my income determined and what documents do I need to submit when applying for the Sliding Fee Discount Program?

A: If you are self-employed or own a business, proper documentation includes Federal tax returns from which your Adjusted Gross Income is used to determine income.
